

2025 Chambliss Labor and Employment Seminar

Join us for an engaging and informative labor-and-employment seminar designed to keep you abreast of the ever-evolving legal and regulatory landscape! This complimentary event is tailored for...

Key Issues Shaping the Workplace

Event Details

Thursday, March 13, 2025

Location: Liberty Tower 17th Floor
(605 Chestnut St., Chattanooga, TN 37450)

Join us for an engaging and informative labor-and-employment seminar designed to keep you abreast of the ever-evolving legal and regulatory landscape! This complimentary event is tailored for executives, management, and HR professionals across industries, offering insights into:

- the latest developments in employment litigation
- the Pregnant Workers Fairness Act
- the transformative role of AI in the workplace
- FMLA and ADA compliance, and other hot button leave issues
- predictions for what to expect in 2025 and beyond

Don't miss this opportunity to network, learn, and equip yourself with the tools to confidently navigate the legal landscape impacting your workplace. As a bonus, you'll have the opportunity to tour Chambliss' newly opened conference and networking space. Mark your calendar now!

Morning session including breakfast (8 a.m.-12 p.m.)

Afternoon session including reception (1-5 p.m.)

Both sessions will cover the same content

Free seminar materials

Complimentary parking (details to be provided closer to event)

Approved for HRCI credit

Hosted by the Chambliss Labor and Employment Section

Chambliss provides prompt, pragmatic legal advice and representation to business owners, HR professionals, and executives on legal issues impacting all facets of employment and independent contractor relationships. Over the years, we have developed intimate knowledge of our clients' businesses, which permits us to provide practical advice consistent with our clients' goals and objectives. We serve clients in manufacturing, education, health care, transportation and logistics, media, and other industries.