

Automotive

Through Chambliss' multidisciplinary approach and experience, the firm provides coordinated, focused legal counsel to national and international vehicle and equipment manufacturers and suppliers.

Chambliss' services include:

- Project development and infrastructure
- Equipment and materials contracts
- Construction contracts and management
- Liens and insurance
- Financing
- Intellectual property, including licensing, cloud computing and hosting agreements, and protection of tooling, designs and processes
- Safety and health, including OSHA compliance
- Employment, including employee recruitment, hiring and training, development of personnel policies, discrimination, reasonable accommodation and workers' compensation
- Real estate acquisition and leasing
- Energy and environmental matters, including compliance, alternative energy supply and enforcement
- Litigation, alternative dispute resolution and regulatory proceedings

Experience

Legal counsel to international automobile manufacturer in establishing and operating its manufacturing facility in the United States

Provided legal services in establishment of large supplier park serving vehicle manufacturer, including legal structure, leasing and financing

Legal counsel in connection with the development of a 33-acre solar park providing solar energy to automobile manufacturing facility

Negotiated and prepared documents for significant materials and equipment contracts for the paint, paint and body shops of vehicle manufacturer

Legal counsel for multiple acquisitions for the leading supplier and distributor of antique, vintage and classic tires

CHAMBLISS

ATTORNEYS AT LAW
