

Kirby Yost Selected for the Tennessee Bar Association's 2019 Leadership Law Program

12.27.2018

Kirby Yost was recently selected to participate in the Tennessee Bar Association's 2019 Leadership Law program. For 16 years the Leadership Law program has worked to provide Tennessee attorneys with the knowledge, skill, and vision necessary to lead in their professions and in their communities. The 2019 class of 35 attorneys from all over the state will meet for its first session in January to kick start the six-month program which will focus on leadership, issues in the courts, state policymaking, and community service.
