Chambliss president and managing shareholder, Mike St. Charles, was recently named 2019 campaign chair of United Way of Greater Chattanooga. Mike served as the United Way board chair for three years and follows Michael Mathis as campaign chair. "We are excited to have Mike work with us in this new, yet familiar, capacity," said United Way president and CEO, Lesley Searce in the official media announcement. "The longstanding support of United Way by the Chambliss firm and Mike's dedicated service to United Way made him an ideal candidate to lead the upcoming campaign season."
