

Litigation and Risk Management

In the midst of challenges, clients seek Chambliss lawyers to minimize liability, losses, and litigation. Chambliss Litigation and Risk Management lawyers help identify areas of potential legal exposure so they can be reduced in transactions, contracts, or in the design, manufacturing, or distribution process. Legal risk prevention is the firm's primary mission.

For more than a century, Chambliss has represented its clients in complex tort, business, and commercial litigation, in state and federal courts throughout the United States and overseas. The firm also frequently represents clients in arbitrations, mediations, and administrative hearings and before federal, state, and local agencies.

Chambliss has the expertise and resources to handle a wide range of large complex cases facing immediate deadlines to provide strategic counsel. Three of Chambliss' lawyers are members of the American College of Trial Lawyers, less than 1 percent of trial lawyers in the state of Tennessee are even eligible for this designation. Several of the firm's trial lawyers have been listed among the Best Lawyers in America or as Mid-South Super Lawyers. In short, we have an excellent, capable, and ready team with an exceptional track record.
