

Amy Boulware and Rebecca Miller to Join Panel for Caregiver Café Seminar

Amy Boulware and Rebecca Miller will participate in Morning Pointe Foundation's Caregiver Café, an educational seminar series, on Monday, March 18, 2024. This event will feature Amy as a moderator and Rebecca as a panelist. The group of industry professionals will share insight on financial planning, Medicare and Medicaid, veteran's benefits, geriatric care, and other topics related to caring for an aging loved one.

This seminar series connects senior living professionals with seniors, caregivers, and their families, and is designed to answer questions and provide helpful information about common issues impacting seniors and caregivers.

This event is free and open to the public. For more information, please visit the Caregiver Café page.

Amy Boulware is an elder care and special needs care manager and a Tennessee Licensed Advance Practice Social Worker (LAP MSW). For over 30 years, she has devoted her time to serving elders, people with disabilities, and their families through advocacy and geriatric and special needs care coordination. Amy helps clients navigate a world of senior and disability services and provides hands-on assistance, from advising on geriatric-related matters like Medicare, Medicaid, and private insurance — to working with parents of adult children with disabilities as they age. Rebecca Miller is a member of the estate planning section at Chambliss. Rebecca uses her knowledge and expertise to give families peace of mind during some of life's most difficult moments. She works with clients in both Tennessee and Georgia on elder law and special needs planning and care coordination, as well as solving disputes involving large estates and complicated assets. Clients count on her to guide them through conservatorships, both contested and uncontested, sometimes advising on whether a conservatorship is even necessary and who might be ideal to appoint.
