

Amy Boulware to Join Panel for Transition of Care Gathering & Discussion Social

Amy Boulware will be a panelist at the Epilepsy Foundation of Southeast Tennessee's "Transition of Care Gathering & Discussion" Social on October 25, 2022. The panel will feature insight from specialists regarding the critical transition periods in the life of someone living with epilepsy and the practical steps to take to navigate these transitions.

For more information or to register for this free event, visit the Transition of Care Gathering & Discussion registration page.

Amy Boulware is an elder care and special needs care manager and a Tennessee Licensed Advance Practice Social Worker (LAP MSW). For nearly three decades, she has devoted her time to serving elders, people with disabilities, and their families through advocacy and geriatric and special needs care coordination. Amy helps clients navigate a world of senior and disability services and provides hands-on assistance, from advising on geriatric-related matters like Medicare, Medicaid, and private insurance — to working with parents of adult children with disabilities as they age. For more information on her experience, visit Amy's bio.