

Amy Boulware to Present at 2021 Trust and Wealth Management Conference

Amy Boulware will join the Tennessee Bankers Association \(TBA\) for their 2021 Trust and Wealth Management Conference. In her presentation “When You Don’t Know What You Don’t Know — The Importance of Having a Plan,” Amy will cover various estate planning techniques centered around dementia. She will explain early, middle, and late stages of a dementia diagnosis and how it may impact planning concerns and legal needs.

The conference is scheduled for October 14-15, 2021 at the TBA Barrett Training Center in Nashville. For more information on the conference, visit the full schedule on the TBA website.

Amy is an elder care and special needs care manager and a Tennessee Licensed Advance Practice Social Worker (LAP MSW). For nearly three decades, she has devoted her time to serving elders, people with disabilities, and their families through advocacy and geriatric and special needs care coordination. Amy helps clients navigate a world of senior and disability services and provides hands-on assistance, from advising on geriatric-related matters like Medicare, Medicaid, and private insurance – to working with parents of adult children with disabilities as they age.
