

Amy Boulware to Present at 2023 Demystifying Death Conference

Amy Boulware will present at Welcome Home of Chattanooga's Demystifying Death Conference on Friday, October 20, 2023. Amy's presentation, "Real World Problems, You Can't Make This Stuff Up," will explore common estate planning mistakes, how to avoid confusion during the planning process, and emphasize the importance of having an estate plan. In addition, she will discuss legal and financial issues clients often encounter during the end-of-life planning process.

For more information on the program schedule or to register, visit the 2023 Demystifying Death Conference event page.

Amy Boulware is an elder care and special needs care manager and a Tennessee Licensed Advance Practice Social Worker (LAP MSW). For over 30 years, she has devoted her time to serving elders, people with disabilities, and their families through advocacy and geriatric and special needs care coordination. Amy helps clients navigate a world of senior and disability services and provides hands-on assistance, from advising on geriatric-related matters like Medicare, Medicaid, and private insurance — to working with parents of adult children with disabilities as they age. For more information on her experience, visit Amy's bio.