

Amy Boulware to Present at Chattanooga CMSA Conference on Special Needs Planning

Amy Boulware will present at the Chattanooga Case Management Society of America's (CMSA) conference on Friday, October 4, 2024. Amy's presentation, "Navigating Special Needs and Conservatorship Planning," will cover an explanation and timeline for special needs trusts, benefits attainment, and conservatorship.

Amy Boulware will present at the Chattanooga Case Management Society of America's \(CMSA\) conference on Friday, October 4, 2024. Amy's presentation, "Navigating Special Needs and Conservatorship Planning," will cover an explanation and timeline for special needs trusts, benefits attainment, and conservatorship. She will help attendees identify the appropriate steps in special needs planning when a child with a disability turns 18, understand the difference between SSI and SSDI benefits as they relate to adult children with disabilities, and grasp the process for conservatorship and its appropriateness with special needs planning.

For more information, visit the Chattanooga CMSA website.

Amy Boulware is an elder care and special needs care manager and a Tennessee Licensed Advance Practice Social Worker (LAP MSW). For over 30 years, she has devoted her time to serving elders, people with disabilities, and their families through advocacy and geriatric and special needs care coordination. Amy helps clients navigate a world of senior and disability services and provides hands-on assistance, from advising on geriatric-related matters like Medicare, Medicaid, and private insurance — to working with parents of adult children with disabilities as they age. For more information on her experience, visit Amy's bio.