

Amy Boulware to Present at Hunter Middle School's Conservatorship Parent Information Night

Amy Boulware will present at Hunter Middle School's Conservatorship Parent Information Night on Thursday, May 9, 2024. Her presentation, "Navigating Special Needs and Conservatorship Planning," will discuss legal changes when a child with a disability turns 18, the difference between Supplemental Security Income and Social Security Disability Insurance, childhood disability benefits, and conservatorship planning considerations.

Amy Boulware is an elder care and special needs care manager and a Tennessee Licensed Advance Practice Social Worker (LAP MSW). For over 30 years, she has devoted her time to serving elders, people with disabilities, and their families through advocacy and geriatric and special needs care coordination. Amy helps clients navigate a world of senior and disability services and provides hands-on assistance, from advising on geriatric-related matters like Medicare, Medicaid, and private insurance — to working with parents of adult children with disabilities as they age.
