

Amy Boulware to Present at Spring 2022 Demystifying Death Program

Amy Boulware will be a guest speaker at Welcome Home of Chattanooga's Spring Demystifying Death course on April 21, 2022. Amy's presentation, "Why It is Important to Plan," will provide insight on important information related to legal and financial issues individuals often find themselves in when a loved one passes away. She will also share common concerns related to death and why it is important to prepare so you don't leave your family in a bind.

For more information on the course syllabus, visit the Demystifying Death event page.

Amy Boulware is an elder care and special needs care manager and a Tennessee Licensed Advance Practice Social Worker (LAP MSW). For nearly three decades, she has devoted her time to serving elders, people with disabilities, and their families through advocacy and geriatric and special needs care coordination. Amy helps clients navigate a world of senior and disability services and provides hands-on assistance, from advising on geriatric-related matters like Medicare, Medicaid, and private insurance — to working with parents of adult children with disabilities as they age. For more information on her experience, visit Amy's bio.