

Amy Boulware to Present at Spring 2023 Demystifying Death Program

Amy Boulware will be a guest speaker at Welcome Home of Chattanooga's Spring Demystifying Death course on April 20, 2023. Amy's presentation, "Why It is Important to Plan," will discuss legal and financial issues individuals often face when the death of a loved one occurs. She will also share common concerns and the importance of preparing so you don't leave your family in a difficult situation.

The eight-week hybrid program will begin March 9, 2023. For more information on the course syllabus or to register, visit the Demystifying Death event page.

Amy Boulware is an elder care and special needs care manager and a Tennessee Licensed Advance Practice Social Worker (LAP MSW). For over 30 years, she has devoted her time to serving elders, people with disabilities, and their families through advocacy and geriatric and special needs care coordination. Amy helps clients navigate a world of senior and disability services and provides hands-on assistance, from advising on geriatric-related matters like Medicare, Medicaid, and private insurance — to working with parents of adult children with disabilities as they age. For more information on her experience, visit Amy's bio.