

Amy Boulware to Present at the 12th Annual Chattanooga Autism Conference

Amy Boulware will present at the Chattanooga Autism Center's 12th Annual Chattanooga Autism Conference. In her presentation "Planning a Road Trip in 2021? Special Needs Estate Planning and Decision Making," Amy will cover special needs planning tools, common legal concerns, and why the planning process requires a multi-disciplinary approach.

The conference is scheduled for September 10, 2021, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. For more information on the conference, please visit the Chattanooga Autism Center's website.

Amy Boulware is an elder care and special needs care manager and a Tennessee Licensed Advance Practice Social Worker (LAP MSW). For nearly three decades, she has devoted her time to serving elders, people with disabilities, and their families through advocacy and geriatric and special needs care coordination. Amy helps clients navigate a world of senior and disability services and provides hands-on assistance, from advising on geriatric-related matters like Medicare, Medicaid, and private insurance — to working with parents of adult children with disabilities as they age.
