

Amy Boulware to Present in 2021 Chattanooga Case Management Society of America Spring Conference

Amy Boulware, elder care and special needs care manager, will join Chattanooga Case Management Society of America \(CMSA\) for their 2021 Virtual Spring Conference. In her presentation “Elder Law Planning: Avoiding the Roadblocks,” Amy will cover basic elder law planning tools, common legal concerns, and why the planning process requires a multi-disciplinary approach.

The webinar is scheduled for April 16, 2021 from 8-9 a.m. For more information on the spring conference, visit the full schedule on the CMSA website.

Amy Boulware is an elder care and special needs care manager and a Tennessee Licensed Advance Practice Social Worker (LAP MSW). For nearly three decades, she has devoted her time to serving elders, people with disabilities, and their families through advocacy and geriatric and special needs care coordination. Amy helps clients navigate a world of senior and disability services and provides hands-on assistance, from advising on geriatric-related matters like Medicare, Medicaid, and private insurance – to working with parents of adult children with disabilities as they age.
