Arícia Gallaher and Paige Baker will present at The University of Tennessee Chattanooga \(UTC\) Gary W. Rollins College of Business on Thursday, October 10, 2024. Their presentation, “An Introduction to Personal Branding and LinkedIn for Beginners,” will provide business students in the Rollins Scholars Class of 2028 Cohort with valuable information on personal branding. The session will cover how to effectively distinguish yourself in a competitive market, build a strong professional presence on social media, and utilize resources to support long-term success.

The Gary W. Rollins College of Business Rollins Scholars program provides students the opportunity to network with fellow business majors, UTC faculty, and Chattanooga business leaders through a variety of programs and community events. Students participate in an advanced business curriculum, hands-on educational experiences, and major-specific activities. Admission to the four-year program is competitive, requiring scholars to submit letters of recommendation, work experience, undergo an interview process, and demonstrate leadership and extracurricular involvement. Internship and professional development opportunities are provided through the Rollins Scholars program as well as $4,000 in annual scholarships.
