

Arícia Gallaher and Paige Baker to Present at UTC Rollins College of Business

Arícia Gallaher and Paige Baker will be presenting at the University of Tennessee Chattanooga (UTC) Gary W. Rollins College of Business on Thursday, October 13, 2022. Their presentation will provide valuable insight on personal branding for business students who are in the Rollins Scholars Class of 2026 Cohort.

The Rollins Scholars program in the Gary W. Collins College of Business offers students the opportunity to network with other business majors, UTC faculty, and Chattanooga business leaders through a series of special programs. Students are part of a community and participate in hands-on, educational experiences and are involved in numerous activities related to their major. Admission requirements for this competitive four-year program include involvement in leadership and extracurricular activities, letters of recommendation, and an interview process. Additionally, the Rollins Scholars program offers $4,000 scholarships per year, internship opportunities, and professional development.
