HealthScope Magazine recently published, "Natalie Martin Inspired by Aricia Gallaher," showcasing Aricia's pivotal mentorship and leadership during Natalie's early professional career. In the article, Natalie recalls how Aricia approaches her work and consistently handles challenges with grace and professionalism.

Here's a snapshot from the article:

"It seemed like all you did was solve other people's problems, and I marveled at your ability to react — to provide direct, and often critical feedback — while still caring for and motivating the people around you. What I learned is that kindness comes in so many forms. And that sometimes, the kindest thing you can do is to be clear with your message and authentic with your delivery."
