

Chambliss Advises Tri-Cities Anesthesia Practices in Merger

Chambliss advised Bristol Anesthesia Services, P.C. and Anesthesia and Pain Consultants, P.C. in the merger of their two professional corporations, which will now operate as Paragon Anesthesia, P.C. The combined physician group will provide anesthesia and pain management coverage in Bristol, Johnson City, and Elizabethton, Tennessee, as well as the greater Tri-Cities area.

The Chambliss team was led by Mark Cunningham, Jed Roebuck, Cal Marshall, and Louis Metcalfe.

“Paragon Anesthesia continues to be committed to providing our communities with world-class medical services and uncompromised standards of care. With this merger, we have combined two high caliber groups into one team, which will continue the stellar legacies of each practice. We appreciate the Chambliss team and their commitment to assisting us with this merger.” – Stephen Evans, M.D., President, Paragon Anesthesia, P.C.

For more information about Chambliss’ M&A services, please visit our Mergers and Acquisitions team page.