

Chambliss Elects New Members for 2024 Executive Committee

Chambliss recently announced Steve Barham and Greg Willett were elected by the shareholders to serve on the Executive Committee for 2024. Steve and Greg will join John Jackson, Laura McKinney, and Mark Cunningham, who was reelected as the firm's president and managing shareholder, on the committee. In addition, Justin Furrow and Mark Turner completed their two-year terms with the board. Each committee member was selected for outstanding leadership and unwavering dedication to our clients and team members.

"Congratulations to Steve and Greg on their well-deserved election to the executive committee," said President and Managing Shareholder Mark Cunningham. "Their dedication and leadership will undoubtedly contribute to the success of our organization. A sincere thank you to Justin and Mark for their invaluable service and commitment over the past two years."

Steve is the chair of the litigation and risk management section. He focuses his practice on complex business litigation and often represents businesses, health care groups, medical revenue cycle management companies, consumer lending, and leading entities across the country on a range of disputes. For more information on his practice and experience, please visit Steve's bio.

Greg is the chair for our estate planning practice area. He assists clients with drafting plans —ranging from simple wills and powers of attorney to the highly complex area of tax planning — and various types of trusts. Greg is actively involved in administering estate plans through both court-supervised probate administration and the non-probate trust administration process. By concentrating on both estate planning and estate administration, he has been able to provide multigenerational wealth planning and wealth preservation for many families across the nation. For more information on his practice and experience, visit Greg's bio.