

Chambliss Welcomes Alexis Crutchfield to the Estate Planning Section

Chambliss, Bahner & Stophel, P.C. is pleased to welcome attorney Alexis B. Crutchfield who will serve the firm's estate planning practice area.

"Alexis is a valuable asset to the group and her clients because of the way she approaches each matter with genuine compassion and discernment," said President and Managing Shareholder Mark Cunningham. "Her experience makes her a strong advocate for all those she represents, and we're lucky to have her on our estate planning team."

Alexis frequently assists clients with a variety of estate planning matters, including drafting wills, trusts, and powers of attorney, achieving current and long-term planning goals, and petitioning for conservatorship. In addition, she ensures each plan is specifically tailored to preserve and protect her client's personal and financial assets. With a background in civil litigation, Alexis's clients see her as a reliable resource in difficult times, and she understands how to approach each complex situation with support and understanding.

Alexis received a bachelor's degree from Samford University in 2017 before continuing her education at the Howard University School of Law, where she served as a student attorney for the school's Child Welfare Clinic. Alexis is a member of the S.L. Hutchins, Chattanooga, and Tennessee Bar Associations. She is also a member of the American Inns of Court, Brock-Cooper Chapter and a board member for the Chattanooga Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division, where she received the Service of the Year Award in 2022. In addition to volunteering at various Legal Aid clinics, Alexis has represented clients through pro bono work in orders of protection and obtaining conservatorship.
