

Chambliss Law Welcomes Financial Analyst Nicholas Kujawa

Chambliss, Bahner & Stophel, P.C. is pleased to announce the addition of Nicholas “Nick” T. Kujawa, who will support the firm as a financial analyst by assisting management with analyzing quantitative information for decision-making and planning purposes.

“Nick is a great addition to our Chambliss team because of the financial industry experience he brings,” said Executive Director Tony Young. “His attention to detail and overall skills will allow us to better serve our clients now and in the future.”

As financial analyst, Nick is responsible for providing and evaluating various financial reports, key performance indicators, and reporting packages to the firm’s leadership team. He will also review the firm’s historical data and industry research to ensure the firm is providing the best overall user experience to clients. Nick is a graduate of the University of Tennessee where he earned a degree in economics.

Spending close to a decade in the mortgage and insurance industries, he brings a unique perspective to the legal industry and will explore areas that can increase overall efficiency and productivity. In previous roles, Nick was responsible for eliminating redundancy, innovating company reporting, and fostering stronger working relationships.

Read the Chattanooga article, “Chambliss Law Welcomes New Hire Nicholas Kujawa.”

Read the Chattanooga Times Free Press article, “Chambliss Law Welcomes Nicholas Kujawa.”

Read the Hamilton County Herald article, “Chambliss Law Hires Financial Analyst Kujawa.”