

Chambliss Represents Alleo Health System in the Acquisition of ABC Hospice

Jim Catanzaro and Doug Griswold recently represented Alleo Health System in the acquisition of ABC Hospice of Rainsville, AL. ABC Hospice will continue offering specialized knowledge and quality hospice services to families in need in Cherokee, Dekalb, Etowah, Jackson, Madison, and Marshall counties in Northeast Alabama. With this addition, Alleo Health System will now serve counties across four states: Tennessee, Georgia, North Carolina, and Alabama.

ABC Hospice, which was a privately owned for-profit company, will now be operated to pursue Alleo's nonprofit purpose. ABC Hospice will continue to provide extensive family-focused services seeking to meet the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of patients and their loved ones during their end of life journey. ABC is focused on pain management for patients facing terminal illness and grief support for their families.

For more information on Alleo and what this growth means, read "ABC Hospice of Rainsville, Ala., Joins Alleo Health Family."

Jim and the firm have worked with Hospice of Chattanooga, now Alleo, for a number of years on a variety of nonprofit, M&A, and health care legal matters. Jim has over 30 years of experience in serving industry leaders in the health care, nonprofit, and commercial business areas. Doug is a lead M&A attorney with extensive experience closing deals in the health care sector. For more information about their capabilities, please visit their bios.