

Chambliss Team Advised American Bedding Manufacturers with Valesco Industries Investment

Chambliss recently advised American Bedding Manufacturers (ABM) on a majority investment by Valesco Industries. FourBridges Capital Advisors served as the exclusive investment banker for ABM throughout the transaction. Boyd and Dale Reynolds are the owners of ABM, which was established in 1997 and is based in Athens, TN. ABM specializes in the B2B niche market, manufacturing and distributing mattresses, bed frames, and case goods for institutional clients, including youth camps, missions and shelters, military installations, and higher education institutions.

Chambliss legal advisors who assisted with the transaction were Laura McKinney, Eric Stocking, and Jarrod Casteel.

For more information on the investment, please see FourBridges Capital Advisors' press release.

The Chambliss mergers and acquisitions team benefits from the industry knowledge and experience in our various practice areas, including real estate, labor and employment, securities, commercial finance, intellectual property, environmental, and health care. Our team approach enables us to provide high-quality work in an efficient, cost-effective manner. We focus on working collaboratively with all parties and professionals to achieve client objectives. If you need our legal services, please contact a member of our team.