

Chambliss Team Spends United Way 'Impact Day' Serving Chambliss Center for Children

Chambliss team members showed their support for the United Way of Greater Chattanooga by giving back to the community and volunteering at Chambliss Center for Children during their 'Impact Days' volunteer initiative. Our team worked together to spread mulch on the playground and pitch in with other various landscaping projects.

This year, the United Way of Greater Chattanooga is celebrating 100 years of impact within our community. In honor of their centennial anniversary, they launched a two-day volunteer initiative called Impact Days. Their Impact Days are scheduled to take place September 16-17, 2022.

More than 2,000 individuals throughout the community signed up to volunteer at project sites across the city to commemorate this special occasion. Volunteer opportunities took place throughout Hamilton, Marion, Sequatchie, Walker, Dade, and Catoosa counties.
