

Courtney Keehan Selected for Leadership Chattanooga Class of 2023-2024

Chambliss associate Courtney Keehan was recently selected for the Leadership Chattanooga class of 2023-2024. Leadership Chattanooga is a 10-month program presented by the Chattanooga Chamber Foundation that provides established professionals with leadership development training, networking opportunities with top community and state leaders, as well as learning opportunities and involvement with community service projects.

Courtney is an associate at Chambliss and advises on business matters related to mergers and acquisitions, environmental compliance, health care, and general business operations. She works with clients in a wide variety of industries and is genuinely interested in their success. Courtney has developed great relationships through her personal approach and consistently offers high-quality results. She serves as a trustee for Thrive Regional Partnership and is a board member for the Association for Visual Arts \(AVA\). For more details on her practice and experience, please visit Courtney's bio.

Read the Chattanooga Trend article, "Chattanooga Chamber Announces Leadership Class of 2024."

Read the Chattanooga.com article, "Chattanooga Chamber Announces 2024 Leadership Chattanooga Class."