

Courtney Keehan to Present at 2023 Tennessee Environmental Network Show of the South

Courtney Keehan will present “Brownfield Legal and Regulatory Updates” at the 2023 Tennessee Environmental Network Show of the South \(TENSOS\) conference hosted by the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation on Thursday, May 11, 2023.

Additionally, Courtney will guide the Brownfield Bus Tour on May 10, 2023, which will explore the former Standard Coosa Thatcher Mill, a key piece of Chattanooga’s industrial past, and the many technical and legal challenges that relate to its redevelopment.

For more information on the conference or to register to attend, visit the TENSOS event page.

Courtney is an associate at Chambliss and advises on business matters related to mergers and acquisitions, environmental compliance, health care, general business operations.

In addition, Courtney is knowledgeable about the local business environment and frequently advises real estate clients on brownfield redevelopment, zoning, and environmental issues. She previously worked the Southern Environmental Law Center and the Federal Highway Administration and assisted in multiple design projects, such as the Yumuna River Project. Courtney has developed great relationships through her personal approach and consistently offers high-quality results. For more details on her practice and experience, please visit Courtney's bio.