

Dana Perry and Amy Boulware to Present at Cleveland State Community College Elder Care Workshop

Amy Boulware and Dana Perry will speak at Cleveland State Community College's Elder Care Workshop on November 6, 2021. Dana's presentation, "Elder Planning ABCs" will cover the importance of end of life planning, including developments and opportunities provided by long-term care insurance, as well as provide knowledge to aid these difficult conversations. Amy is joining other industry professionals in an open roundtable discussion to answer elder care related questions attendees may have.

If you are interested in attending this community event, please register online.

Dana is the chair for our Elder Law and Special Needs Planning groups. A Certified Elder Law Attorney with more than 30 years' experience, she advises individuals and families on all of their options for multi-generational estate and tax planning, long-term care and end of life planning, benefits including Medicaid and Medicare, various trusts, and beyond. For a detailed look at her experience and compassionate, holistic approach, please visit Dana's bio.

Amy is an elder care and special needs care manager and a Tennessee Licensed Advance Practice Social Worker (LAP MSW). For nearly three decades, she has devoted her time to serving elders, people with disabilities, and their families through advocacy and geriatric and special needs care coordination. Amy helps clients navigate a world of senior and disability services and provides hands-on assistance, from advising on geriatric-related matters like Medicare, Medicaid, and private insurance – to working with parents of adult children with disabilities as they age. For more information on her experience, visit Amy's bio.

Read the Chattanooga article, "Elder Care Workshop At CSCC Is Open To The Public."