

Dana Perry and Colter Parker to Lead Folks at Home Webinar

Dana Perry and Colter Parker will lead an elder law and estate planning webinar for Folks at Home members and their families on Thursday, September 21, 2023. Their presentation, "Elder, Estate, and Special Needs Planning: Planning for the Journey," will discuss important estate planning topics, including incapacity and end of life planning, housing and financial options, financial exploitation, and more. They will also provide attendees with resources for navigating complex planning situations.

Dana is the chair for our elder law and special needs planning groups. A Certified Elder Law Attorney with more than 30 years' experience, she advises individuals and families on all of their options for multi-generational estate and tax planning, long-term care and end of life planning, benefits including Medicaid and Medicare, various trusts, and beyond. For a detailed look at her experience and compassionate, holistic approach, please visit Dana's bio.

Colter is an associate in the estate planning section at Chambliss. With a background in finance, Colter provides integrated and comprehensive estate plans that address a client's entire portfolio of assets, including retirement planning, long-term care, and estate and gift tax planning. Colter's financial insight is instrumental in developing plans tailored for tax-efficiency, ongoing creditor protection, family business succession, asset preservation, or special needs planning.
