

Hannah-Claire Boggess Selected for 2023-2024 CWLI Game ChangeHer Mentoring Class

Hannah-Claire Boggess was recently selected for the Chattanooga Women's Leadership Institute's (CWLI) Game ChangeHer program. Formerly known as Women Mentoring Women, this program is a 16-session series that provides a combination of personal and professional development curriculum for women seeking to strengthen their skills and supplies them with tools to serve as successful mentors and leaders.

After working through training modules, each mentor will be paired with students from Chattanooga Girls Leadership Academy to apply what they have learned. Afterward, the mentor will adjust the lesson for her group of students and discuss how it applies to them. This program begins in August and will conclude with a graduation ceremony in May 2024.

Hannah-Claire is an associate in the real estate section at Chambliss. She counsels clients on leasing, property sale and acquisition, and development related matters. Hannah-Claire's passion for providing personalized service allows her to make clients' lives easier while prioritizing their desired outcomes. For more details on her practice and experience, please visit Hannah-Claire's bio.

Read the Chattanooga Times Free Press article, "CWLI Names New Class for Game ChangeHer".