

Jim Catanzaro Adds Speech and Hearing Center to Volunteer Service in Chattanooga Community

The Hamilton County Herald recently published "Catanzaro Guiding Speech and Hearing Plan," an article highlighting Jim Catanzaro's newest volunteer endeavor as board chair of The Speech and Hearing Center. In the article, Jim discusses how volunteering allows him to combine his personal and professional knowledge to make a difference in the community.

Here's a snapshot from the article:

Catanzaro's newest volunteer endeavor involves guiding the board of The Speech and Hearing Center as it executes a soon-to-be-unveiled three-year strategic plan for serving the Chattanooga area. He assumed the position of board chair in January.

"I saw how deficits in audiology and speech can impact a child's education and development and was moved as a parent to offer my skills in helping nonprofits with governance and outreach," Catanzaro says.

...While Catanzaro is pleased to serve, he credits his firm with giving him the breathing room he needs to be able to contribute.

"I'm proud to work at a firm like Chambliss because we value our roots and our connections with our community," he says. "Chattanooga has been good to us, and we need to support it in every way we can."

Read the full Hamilton County Herald article, "Catanzaro Guiding Speech and Hearing Plan."

Jim is a shareholder in the business section at Chambliss. Nonprofits, private foundations, public charities, health care providers, and commercial entities rely on Jim's technical experience and practical approach to advise them on issues including drafting and reviewing contracts, compliance audits, managing applicable risk, leveraging the efficiencies of their teams, and compliance issues. Jim also serves as general counsel for organizations that provide grants or public benefit services. In addition to The Speech and Hearing Center, Jim also serves as chairman for the Chattanooga Area Food Bank and serves on the board of directors for Goodwill Industries of the Greater Chattanooga Area, Reflection Riding, Venture Forward, and United Way of Greater Chattanooga. For more information on his experience, please visit Jim's bio.