Justin Furrow will be moderating the 2022 Federal Focus panel discussion hosted by the Chattanooga Area Chamber of Commerce. This year's event will feature Curtis Dubay as the keynote speaker, and a panel discussion with Senator Bill Hagerty and Congressman Chuck Fleischmann. Justin will lead the federal delegation members as they provide insight on the current state of the economy and the potential ramifications it has on local businesses and midterm elections.

This in-person event is scheduled for Thursday, August 25, 2022, at 7 a.m. EST. For more information on this year's signature public policy event, please visit the Chattanooga Chamber's website.

Justin Furrow is chair of the Chambliss Labor and Employment section. He provides top-notch counsel and complex employment litigation representation to national and regional corporations, family-owned businesses, emerging companies, and other entities. Justin has successfully defended and assisted clients in major employment law matters in state and federal courts across the country, and before administrative agencies such as the EEOC and DOL. Clients often turn to Justin for counsel on discrimination, retaliation, and harassment issues, employee leave questions, whistleblower protections, reasonable accommodation, noncompetition and nonsolicitation agreements, and shareholder agreements and disputes, among other matters. In addition, Justin is a long-time member of the Chamber's Public Policy Committee and served as chair for several years. He is actively involved in federal and state legislative and regulatory matters on behalf of his clients and as a public policy committee member.
