Justin Furrow will present to the Southeast Tennessee Lawyers' Association for Women (SETLAW) on Thursday, May 29, 2025. His presentation, "Current DEI Landscape – Recent Federal Developments and the Impact on Federal Contractors and Private Employers," will cover Executive Order 14173 and the possible implications for contractors and employers. Justin will also share insight on changes to DEI and DEIA policies and their impact on different industries. This in-person program is open to SETLAW members and nonmembers and will be submitted for CLE credit.

The event will take place at Chambliss' office (605 Chestnut Street, Suite 1700, Chattanooga, TN 37450) from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. To register for the event, visit the Eventbrite page.

Justin Furrow is chair of the Chambliss Labor and Employment section. He provides top-notch counsel and complex employment litigation representation to national and regional corporations, family-owned businesses, emerging companies, and other entities. Justin has successfully defended and assisted clients in major employment law matters in state and federal courts across the country, and before administrative agencies such as the EEOC and DOL. Clients often turn to Justin for counsel on discrimination, retaliation, and harassment issues, employee leave questions, whistleblower protections, reasonable accommodation, noncompetition and nonsolicitation agreements, and shareholder agreements and disputes, among other matters.
