

Kathleen Siciliano to Present at TAIS Business Office and Human Resources Conference

Kathleen Siciliano will present at the Tennessee Association of Independent Schools \(TAIS\) Business Office and Human Resources Conference on Friday, April 12, 2024. Her presentation, “Hot Topics in Employment Law — Recent Developments and What’s Next,” will explore recent developments for human resource professionals to consider for the upcoming school year. Kathleen will also discuss recent trends in employment law, legal pitfalls independent schools should avoid, the potential end to noncompete agreements, new religious accommodation standards, the Pregnant Workers Fairness Act, FMLA and ADA updates, and the future of DEI programs.

This event is open to TAIS members and non-members. For more information, please visit the TAIS event page.

Kathleen is an associate in Chambliss’ labor and employment section. She counsels employers of all sizes on discrimination and retaliation claims, employment agreements, medical leave and disability concerns, LGBTQ matters, workplace investigations, and restrictive covenants and trade secret enforcement, all while ensuring state and federal employment law compliance. Kathleen’s work also includes advising independent schools on a wide range of issues such as wage and hour compliance, student safety and disciplinary issues, and contract disputes. Known for her thoughtful approach and dedication to her clients’ best interests, Kathleen is always listening first and providing advice second. She understands that the needs of every client differ and is prepared to adjust her approach to best serve each individual client. For more information on her practice and experience, please visit Kathleen’s bio.