

Kirby Yost to Present During TBA Hot Topics in Real Estate Webinar

Kirby Yost will present during the Hot Topics in Real Estate 2023 webinar hosted by the Tennessee Bar Association \(TBA\) on Friday, November 10, 2023. The webinar will have various industry professionals discuss commercial leases, authority issues concerning entities and estates, generative A.I., and annual case law and legislative updates. Kirby's presentation, "Sticky Provisions in a Commercial Lease," will provide tips for finding middle ground between landlord and tenant on the most negotiated commercial lease provisions to reach a mutually acceptable lease deal.

For more information or to register for the webinar, please visit the TBA website.

Kirby is a shareholder in our real estate section and often works with developers and businesses on matters related to acquisition and financing, retail and office leasing, land use, zoning, and other property issues. To learn more about Kirby's practice and experience, visit her bio.