

Logan Threadgill Selected for Leadership Chattanooga Class of 2021-2022

Chambliss associate Logan Threadgill was recently selected for the Leadership Chattanooga class of 2021-2022. Leadership Chattanooga is a 10-month program presented by the Chattanooga Chamber Foundation that provides leadership development training, networking opportunities with top community and state leaders, as well as experiential learning opportunities and involvement with community service projects.

Logan represents clients in a broad spectrum of commercial litigation matters. He has extensive experience working on construction cases, contract and payment disputes, product liability cases, and Chapter 7, Chapter 11, and Chapter 13 bankruptcy proceedings. Logan enjoys working with clients to creatively resolve their legal issues in the most efficient and effective manner so more time and energy can be used to focus on running the business. He is a board member for the Young Lawyers Divisions of the Chattanooga Bar Association and Tennessee Bar Association. Logan is a recent graduate of Protégé Chattanooga, led by the Young Professionals of Chattanooga \(YPC\) and the Chattanooga Chamber of Commerce. For more details on his practice and experience, please visit Logan's bio.

Read the Chattanooga Times Free Press article, "Chattanooga Area Chamber of Commerce's leadership classes name new members."