

Lydia Boydston Joins Chambliss' Estate Planning Section

Chambliss, Bahner & Stophel, P.C. is pleased to announce the addition of Lydia M. Boydston, who will serve the firm's estate planning practice area as a paralegal.

"We are excited to welcome Lydia to our estate planning team," said President and Managing Shareholder Mark Cunningham. "Her experience assisting high net worth clients with asset protection, combined with her analytical approach and commitment to prompt service, ensures our clients can expect exceptional and personalized support. We are confident that her contributions will enhance the quality of service we provide."

Lydia brings a decade of legal experience to the firm, assisting clients in managing their assets with trusts tailored to their unique needs. Her experience extends to helping high net worth individuals with LLC formations, estate planning, and asset protection strategies. Lydia's strong analytical skills, enhanced by her appreciation for mathematics, make her an invaluable asset to the firm.

Before joining Chambliss, Lydia gained extensive experience in various sectors of the legal industry and in state, federal, and appellate courts. She has worked in insurance defense, civil rights, construction defects, products liability, wrongful death actions, mass torts, LLC formations, domestic and family law, Social Security disability appeals, and personal injury. Lydia is known for her unwavering dedication to her clients, ensuring that no matter is too big or small for her attention. She meets challenges head-on and works tirelessly to find the best solutions for her clients. Additionally, her commitment to providing customized, timely, and loyal service is evident in her approach to client relations. She assures her clients that regardless of changing interest rates and tax laws, her dedication to their needs remains steadfast.

Lydia is a volunteer at Tree City USA and holds a bachelor's degree from Berry College.

Read the Chattanooga article, "Lydia Boydston Joins Chambliss' Estate Planning Section."

Read the Chattanooga Times Free Press article "Meet 11 of the Latest Hirings and Promotions in the Chattanooga Business Community."