

Mark Cunningham and Justin Furrow to Present on Recent COVID-19 Legislation and Liability Issues at TASCA Fall Conference

Mark Cunningham and Justin Furrow will present at the Tennessee Ambulatory Surgery Center Association \(TASCA\) Fall Conference and Trade Show. In their presentation, “COVID-19 and the Workplace: Recent Legislation and Liability Issues,” they will cover emerging risks for employers post COVID-19 and related employer and employee rights regarding verification of vaccination, employee policies, COVID-19 testing, and sanitation protocols. They will also discuss risk management concerns in the event of employee non-compliance with newly identified COVID-19 related policies.

The conference is scheduled for September 30-October 1, 2021, at the Westin Chattanooga. For more information on the conference, please visit the TASCA website.

Mark is the president and managing shareholder at Chambliss. With several years of experience in building out his national health care practice, Mark serves industry leaders in the physician services, revenue cycle management, and mergers and acquisitions markets. Justin chairs the Labor and Employment section and co-chairs the Chambliss COVID-19 Task Force, which continues to monitor and provide updates on legislative and regulatory developments and other legal implications of the COVID-19 pandemic. Mark, Justin, and our COVID-19 Task Force have been advising clients on employment and business matters, especially related to evolving guidance from Congress, the federal government, and government agencies. If you have questions or would like to learn more about their individual practices, please reach out to Mark or Justin.