

Nate Kinard to Present to the Chattanooga Chapter of the Federalist Society

Nate Kinard will present to the Chattanooga Chapter of the Federalist Society for Law and Public Policy on Tuesday, August 29, 2023. During his presentation, “An Advocate’s Practical Introduction to Crafting Originalist Arguments,” Nate will discuss the nature of originalist thinking in court decisions, pinpoint areas where originalist thinking is developing, introduce vital historical resources, and offer insight for researching legal history. This in-person program is open to Federalist Society members and non-members and will be submitted for CLE credit.

For more information or to register to attend, visit the Federalist Society’s website.

Nate is a shareholder in Chambliss’ Litigation and Risk Management group, as well as Chambliss Startup group. He regularly appears before arbitrators, judges, juries, and appellate courts, and also has successfully resolved cases using critical motions such as motions to dismiss, motions for summary judgment, and motions for JNOV. Nate provides top-level risk management advice to general counsel for established businesses and startups, primarily regarding complex disputes over sales of goods, large construction projects, manufacturing and distribution contracts, intellectual property, and products liability. For more information on his experience, please visit Nate’s bio.