She also assists with the formation and governance of entities. Known for her proactive approach and strong organizational skills, Angela thrives in environments where multitasking and attention to detail are imperative. Additionally, her educational background in biology and medicine provides a unique blend of depth to her role. Angela is committed to supporting her team and helping achieve success for our clients.

Sidebar

Growing up in a military family, Angela landed in Tennessee when her father was stationed at Fort Campbell, and she discovered her affection for the area while attending college at UTC. Outside of work, Angela spends the majority of her time outside or doing house projects with her husband, Timothy, while her two cats, Sophie and Cali Belle, and her dog, Luna, are never far away (and usually being tripped over). She finds the most joy in her side gig — fostering cats for the Humane Educational Society.
