When Aricia steps away from work, she embraces a world of creativity, wellness, and family. She loves traveling with her loved ones, cherishing every moment exploring new destinations — from sailing the Western Mediterranean to a poignant trip to the Philippines with her WWII veteran grandfather, which stands out. Their bond, forged through stories of courage and resilience, remains strong even after his passing. Her passion for the arts drives her to paint and collect art, reflecting her unique perspective on life. While she has completed two half-marathons, Aricia finds joy in CrossFit, thriving on challenges that push her limits. At home, Aricia finds solace with her husband, Rick Mincy, and their two beloved English Springer Spaniels, CoCo and Sir Remington.
