I believe every client is important, and I ensure they are treated with humility, respect, and understanding.

With over 15 years of legal experience, Chasity Jackson has a deep understanding of probate and the administrative processes involved in trusts and estates. She is dedicated to helping clients protect their assets with customized plans that meet their specific needs. Chasity works with clients throughout the entire estate or trust administration process, which includes gathering and valuing possessions preparing legal documents, notifying creditors and beneficiaries of their rights, outstanding debts, and responsibilities, managing debts and taxes, ensuring compliance, and facilitating asset distribution. She is committed to ensuring every client feels valued, heard, and well-informed throughout the entire estate administration process. Chasity recognizes that clients are often grieving the loss of a loved one and works to provide them with the best service and make the estate administration process as smooth as possible during one of the most difficult times of their lives.

Before joining Chambliss, Chasity worked in administrative, business, civil, corporate, and probate law. With a deep appreciation for her work and a genuine care for others, she found her passion in estate planning and administration. Chasity developed a keen appreciation for communication and believes it is vital for clients to feel truly listened to. When working with her, clients know they will be treated with respect and empathy.
