From trial to mediation to risk prevention, I enjoy finding creative ways to help clients resolve conflict and preserve assets.

In over 35 years of practice, John has litigated or tried a broad range of cases. Today, he focuses primarily on commercial and intellectual property litigation and mediation. John has successfully prosecuted or defended claims involving patent, trademark and/or copyright infringement, trade secret misappropriation, supplier-dealer issues, breach of warranty/contract, and product liability claims in numerous jurisdictions. He has handled cases with technologies ranging from heavy machinery to plastics, floor covering to siding, sporting goods to musical instruments, hazardous waste containment products to food products. John is listed as a mediator with the American Intellectual Property Law Association (AIPLA) and is a Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 31 Listed General Civil Mediator.

Sidebar

John has lived in Tennessee his whole life, except for when he made the big move to Cincinnati for law school. Naturally, he's a Tennessee Vols fan! At home, John enjoys spending time with his wife and family. They like venturing outdoors and taking hikes. He and his wife also make time to travel; one of their favorite trips was to London in 2022 where they recorded music at Abbey Road Studios.
