Our clients' needs come first, and I believe in quick response and support.

Kristine Taubert, senior paralegal, assists manufacturers and other commercial businesses across the U.S. in product liability, business litigation, and patent and infringement law. Clients benefit from her considerable expertise in technology which she uses to increase the efficiency and cost-effectiveness of major litigation. In fact, Kristine has served as lead paralegal in many of the firm's largest cases and as lead trial paralegal in a number of cases tried to verdict in various jurisdictions.
