I've developed great relationships with our clients and enjoy helping solve their most complicated litigation issues.

Linda Higgins assists with business litigation, patent and trademark infringement, insurance defense, professional liability, product liability, and other general litigation. With over 30 years of experience, Linda is an integral part of the litigation team. Attorneys and clients depend on her vast knowledge when navigating sophisticated disputes and complex cases. Before Chambliss, Linda worked for a boutique law firm where she gained a variety of experience in real estate, workers' compensation, criminal law, probate, bankruptcy, and personal injury.
