Working on taxes is a challenge I enjoy, and I remain dedicated to finding the most economical solutions for our clients.

A dedicated professional with 25 years in the legal world, Michelle Austin works with clients on matters related to estate planning, taxation, and trust administration. Michelle assists with the preparation and filing of various types of tax returns, including returns for individuals, fiduciaries, exempt organizations, and estates. She is also involved with the administration of several trusts and is responsible for coordinating distributions to the beneficiaries and maintaining the financial records of the trusts. In her career, Michelle has also worked in a number of different practice areas, including estate administration, family law, business, real estate, bankruptcy, criminal law, and medical malpractice.
