I bring a sense of calm to clients during times that may seem stressful and chaotic.

Peggy Bates has over 20 years of experience as a litigation paralegal. A dependable resource, she helps clients through sensitive matters related to family law, divorce, and domestic relations. Her versatile litigation background includes product liability, medical malpractice, real estate, long-term care defense, and bankruptcy. While she serves clients throughout the Southeast, she often works with private clients in Tennessee, Georgia, and Alabama. Known for being hands-on, she responds quickly and provides a great service experience with her personable approach.
