Part of being an effective litigator is to understand your client's needs. I place myself in the shoes of my client and approach disputes with an eye toward winning. Representing both plaintiffs and defendants, I have a unique perspective that serves our clients well.

A seasoned and highly accomplished litigator, Bill Dearing's vast experience helps guide his clients to successful results. He has a broad spectrum of trial experience involving sophisticated matters including product liability and complex contract, commercial, and insurance coverage disputes. He is also one of the regions foremost authorities on involuntary commitment hearings and mental health legal issues.

Bill's practice is significant and national. Over the past three decades he has handled a multitude of high-profile cases and has counseled clients from a number of different industries, including businesses involved with mobile construction equipment, conveyors, industrial rock crushers, and augers, as well as hot oil heaters and asphalt plants. He also has extensive experience overseeing serious personal injury claims involving trauma, brain injury, and wrongful death. In addition to serving as lead counsel on dozens of jury and bench trials, Bill has successfully handled numerous appeals, including appearances before the Tennessee Court of Appeals, the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

Bill has successfully represented clients in high stakes litigation before juries and judges in a multitude of jurisdictions, including Tennessee, Georgia, Ohio, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Texas, Oregon and California. Overall, he has represented clients in more than 20 states. Bill has won high level jury trials literally stretching across the United States from coast to coast (Los Angeles, CA to Philadelphia, PA). His success rate is remarkable. In addition to numerous defense verdicts, he has obtained several million-dollar-plus jury verdicts and negotiated settlements on behalf of his clients.

With a track record of success in the courtroom, Bill has consistently been recognized by his clients and peers as a go-to resource for excellent results and high levels of client service.

Sidebar

One word immediately comes to mind when thinking about Bill - "Coach." Bill coached football for nearly 30 years and ranks as one of Tennessee's winningest coaches for his time with the "Catholic Rams." Bill supports Notre Dame High School, the Tennessee Vols, Texas Christian, and the Atlanta Falcons. There is never a dull moment in the Dearing household. Bill and his wife have five children (three girls and two boys.) The family pets include three dogs, two frogs, one cat, and six chickens. In their free time, the family enjoys water activities at the lake.

Bill was raised in Chattanooga and worked his first job at 15 as "produce boy" at the Red Food Store, a position he held for seven years before entering law school. Bill has devoted significant time to volunteer and civic involvement. He has been an active member of the International Lions Club for over 25 years and has been named "Lion of the Year" and "Lion of the Decade" for his tireless efforts on behalf of the world's largest service organization.
