

Sally Brewer Leads Alzheimer's Association Webinar on Legal and Financial Planning

Sally Brewer will join the Georgia Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association for a virtual education session, Legal and Financial Planning for Alzheimer's Disease. Sally will discuss significant issues that should be considered when planning for a loved one who has Alzheimer's disease. She will also provide tips on how to make legal plans to fit your needs, how to find legal and financial assistance, strategies for a long-term care plan, tax deductions and credits, and government assistance programs that can help pay for care.

The webinar is scheduled for Friday, October 29 at 10 a.m. To register, sign up on the Alzheimer's Association website or call 800-272-3900.

Sally Brewer has served as a senior care professional for over 30 years. She often assists with matters related to elder law – like wills, powers of attorney, and conservatorships – as well as care coordination, placement assistance, dementia consultation, and Medicaid/Veterans benefits attainment. She is a certified dementia practitioner who advocates for change in Alzheimer's public policy and regularly performs educational trainings to area professionals. Sally is in the National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners and is a former program director for the Alzheimer's Association. For more information on her experience, visit Sally's bio.
