

Arbitration, Mediation, and Dispute Resolution

Chambliss has been successfully resolving simple to highly complex disputes through arbitration and mediation for decades. Our team, experienced with cases of all types and sizes for individuals and entities, includes: experienced arbitrators listed by the American Arbitration Association who typically handle construction and complex commercial disputes; Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 31 Listed General Civil Mediators who focus on employment, business, and personal injury disputes; a mediator listed with the American Intellectual Property Law Association who for decades has focused on intellectual property and other complex disputes; and a trained Family and General Civil Mediator who assists in resolving domestic disputes. Many of our attorneys have been arbitrating and mediating throughout the majority of their careers, earning appointments for their experience and successful track records.

In addition, our attorneys represent clients in arbitrations and mediations on a wide variety of cases across numerous industries. There are many options available in the alternative dispute resolution process, and we are dedicated to understanding our clients' goals for resolution and explaining the benefits of all the options available. We thoughtfully guide our clients on all sides of table. We are empathetic with what's at stake and are intentional about resolving disputes in the most expeditious and cost-effective manner.
